

ALPHA at OSCARS

Alpha at Oscars Dress Code

Members and their guests are asked to dress appropriately for the Club environment, time of day and occasion. Overall, we are aiming for a smart environment and therefore we ask you to make an effort.

Whilst we will endeavour to assess the overall appearance, we ask all members to respect the rules and remain courteous if our staff feel it necessary to remind you of the dress code. To assist everyone in knowing the rules we have prepared a detailed dress code which we hope will avoid any embarrassment on entry:

The following is acceptable at all times:

Men

A collared shirt or polo shirt, tucked in, with tailored trousers, corduroys, chinos, moleskins or smart jeans. Jackets and ties are not required but are appreciated.

Women

Please dress with equivalent formality.

This dress code and the banned items apply to anyone aged 13 or above.

Banned Items

- Anything with a potentially offensive slogan, that is dirty or torn or is inappropriately revealing (exposed midriffs are not acceptable);
- Casual blue/stonewash and denim wear (including jeans, trousers, dresses, skirts, jackets and shirts);
- Ripped jeans;
- Mini Skirts;
- Work clothes and trade uniforms;
- Dirty, torn or scruffy clothes of any kind;
- Hats, caps and hoodies;
- Cargo/combat pant style trousers;
- Leisurewear, such as shorts, T-shirts, items with large logos and leggings (even leather) except under dresses;
- Flip-flops, casual sandals, sports trainers/sneakers, casual boots, hiking shoes/boots, wellington boots and 'Ugg'—style boots, or any shoes in a distressed condition. For further guidance on footwear, please see below.

Events

Please adhere to the dress code published for the specific event you are attending. If you are unsure what this is, please check the information on the events listing on the Club website or on your confirmation letter/email.

Outerwear and Luggage

Outerwear and luggage (including umbrellas and carrier bags) may not be kept in the public spaces. They must be left in the cloakroom or stored by a staff member on your behalf.

Guidance on Footwear
