Our Fine White Wine Selection

2002 Gewürztraminer Kaefferkopf, Meyer-Fonné		£85.00
This Gewürztraminer offers complex aromas, ranging from rose to apricot kernel and tropical fruits, together with pepper and sweet spices. Dried fruits and honey also appear. Beautiful golden colour.
2004 Gewürztraminer Brand, Domaine Albert Boxler		£85.00
Intense but restrained in its varietal expression, this is much more than a Gewürztraminer. The granitic soils are so well suited to this variety and a third of this large vineyard are planted with it. This Grand Du opened up quickly, but its glorious complexity has developed over the years.
2014 Meursault 1er Cru, Martlet Cherisey, Cotes de Beaune		£95.00
Leading Domaine, notable butterscotch Chardonnay with good mineral balance.
2007 Pinot Gris Brand, Domaine Albert Boxler		£100.00
The fragrant bouquet of the wine is very rich, with bright notes of ripe peach, white plum, lychee and oriental spices. Well-structured wine, juicy, full, with a well-defined acidity and fruity after-taste. Aging has given it a glorious deep colour.
2004 Riesling Grand Cru Brand, Domaine Albert Boxler		£100.00
A beautiful golden and clear hue, intense and brilliant, promising a high-level tasting which the first scents quickly confirm. The nose demonstrates a complex, chiselled, refined and feminine wine: the Riesling is there, certainly, but with candied pineapple, white flowers and amber. On the palate, it presents a soft attack without any heaviness because relayed by a subtle acidity and a stony mineral. Wonderful wine.
2010 Chassagne-Montrachet Blanc, Jean-Marc Pillot		£120.00
A village wine from a legendary vintage for a white Burgundy. All of the refinement of a 1er Cru at a fraction of the price. Plenty of white fruit and the softness and richness in the mouth that one associates with Chassagne.
2001 Pinot Gris Dorfburg, Meyer-Fonné		£120.00
Smells like honey liquor but it's not nearly that sweet on the palate. The wine shows all that is enjoyable with Alsace Pinot Gris, and is just a bit 'sweeter' than is typical. Nice damp forest floor, floral notes, barnyard, mushrooms, earth. Nothing jumps out and grabs you but everything is solid. Maybe just a tad hot on the finish, but it tastes so good that it's hard to notice.

2007 St-Aubin 1 er Cru Les Frionnes, Hubert Lamy £120.00
Gone are the days when St-Aubin had to fight for recognition amongst the whites of Burgundy. This is a marvellous complex wine with buttery vanilla flavours to complement the honey and lime that comes through as it is swilled in the mouth. This is one of the finest St-Aubin's ever made. If it were made in Puligny-Montrachet just a few miles up the road its price would be trebled.

2008 Meursault Les Tessons, Darviot-Perrin £750.00
Les Tessons is regarded as one of the lesser 1 er Cru vineyards in Meursault but this reflects in its price. In the hands of a top grower like Perrin, this translates to superb value for money. Full mouth feel. White fruits and fleshy peach through the mid-palate. Creamy smooth and good length. Superb poise and balance. Very well integrated.

Rosé Wine

	175ml	Bottle

2020 Ramato Pinot Grigio delle Venezie, Tenuta Giacobbe, Veneto Italy Coppery PG made traditionally by macerating the juice in its burnished skins for 24 hours	£8.00	£33.00
2020 Miraly Syrah Rosato 2019 Tenuta Montecchiesi, Cortona, Tuscany New wave Italian pink, using Syrah to make in the Provencal style	£8.00	£34.00
2020 Mon Rose, Domaine Montrose, Oliver Coste, Cotes de Thongue Olivier Coste is a Rose specialist, here blending Grenache, Syrah and Vermentino for a creamy texture	£8.50	£36.00

Valpolicella 'passed over' (macerated) on the lees of Amarone collecting intense, dried fruit notes

Our Fine Red Wine Selection

2008 Chateau Langoa-Barton, 3me Cru Classé St-Julien	£100.00
For many St-Julien is the finest of the Bordeaux appellations. Full bodied, with some tannins still to be resolved, the wine offers a classic character, with bright, crisp, red berries in the nose and mouth, freshness and a crisp, juicy, earth herbs, and cedar note that adds to the bright cassis.
2010 La Croix de Beaucaillou, St-Julien	£100.00
With fabulous concentration, this is really exciting, concentrated and serious and it holds its own against the truly inspirational Grand Vin. It has such a lovely fresh vibrancy and a great depth that is worthy of a far higher-ranked wine.
2005 Chateau Cantemerle, Cru Classé Haut-Médoc	£120.00
Ever popular Cry Bourgeois from a good year. With a delicate aroma of flowers, black raspberries, spice and earth, this medium bodied wine is pure elegance. Soft, refined and not tasters that seek out ripe, powerful wines.
2014 Chateau Gazin, Pomerol	£125.00
Pomerol is a favourite appellation with English wine lovers. This Gazin is luscious, round, supple textured, ripe, sweet, dark red fruits, with ripe flavours and a plished silky finish are found here. This is really nice from start to finish.

- 2013 Pinot Noir Wilde Farm, Anderson Valley California £150.00
This wine bursts from the glass with exotic red berries, mint, crushed flowers, spices and pine. Weightless, perfumed and super expressive. A fine wine from a fine producer of Pinot Noir.
- 2007 Domaine de Chevalier Rouge, Cru Classé Pessac-Léognan £150.00
Time has been good to this wine. The fresh, red berries, tobacco, cigar box and earth are really shining. Soft, medium bodied and with all its tannins resolved, now is a great time to be enjoying this wine.
- 2008 Morey-St-Denis I er Cru, Aux Cheseaux, Domaine Arlaud £150.00
Morey-St-Denis is an often-overlooked appellation of Burgundy producing fine wines. This is dark red, looking slightly murky. A very mineral driven nose, with lots of rusticity and earth. The characteristics of the vintage shone out, with strong acidity. Fortunately, the fruits back it up ensuring a rather well balanced wine. Palate has a decent structure, with sour cherries, raspberries and game. Perfect with beef.
- 2009 La Dame de Montrose, St Estéphe £150.00
The second wine of one of the leading growers in St-Estéphe. Mature, bright, fresh, earthy, tobacco-stained and with crisp red fruits, the wine is classic in style with a medium-bodied, slightly austere, bright, red fruit and forest leaf profile. The wine has entered its prime time window.
- 2008 Chateau Leoville-Barton, St Julien I er Cru Classé £200.00
Deeply-coloured, still young. Focused, profound nose recalling cassis, black fruits, coffee, graphite and a hint of spice. Lovely presence, dense, fine texture, lingering freshness, elegant oak and silky tannins. A superlative wine.
- 2009 Vosne-Romanée Vieilles Vignes, Maison Roche de Bellene £225.00
Very dark. At first the nose makes one think of young vintage Port rather than Burgundy. Ripe, bumptious fruit. Really enjoyable. Not overly complex. Acidity just a little low but loads of fun.
- 2004 Pommard I er Cru Les Grands Epenots, Domaine de Montille £225.00
Medium ruby in colour. Nose of strawberries, raspberries, cedar and sous-bois. Dry on the palate but very ripe. The fruit is fresh and accompanied by raw cedar and earthy undertones. The acidity is high but in balance. The tannins are velvety, almost fully resolved. The texture is that of satin sheets. Alcohol is medium and almost unperceivable. The finish is long and alluring.
- 2003 Alter Ego de Chateau Palmer, Margaux £250.00
Second wine of a top Margaux vineyard. Likeable, easy to drink, delicate and mature, with soft red fruits, earth, tobacco and cedar.
- 2005 Nuits-St-Georges Vieilles Vignes, Alain Michelot £250.00
All the richness of old vines of at least 45 years of age, gives this powerful, aromatic Nuits-St-Georges a wonderful texture, complex flavours of blackberry, blackcurrant and smoke, and a long, elegant, flavoursome finish.
- 2001 Nuits-St-Georges Premier Cru Les Lavières, Jean Grivot £250.00
Still quite deep ruby core. Initially quite fragrant with blackberry fruit, this broadens aromatically, showing more dark cherry and oak. Medium weight that also develops more flesh in the glass. You may eventually discover some ground coffee in addition to the fine fruit and very strong cranberry acidity.
- 2014 Pommard I er Cru Les Rugiens-Bas, Domaine de Montille £250.00
Inviting nose of sweet plum and brown spices. It has good depth and structure in the mouth. There's some aniseed and dark cherry as well. Length is good. Typically Pommard.
- 2000 Chateau Beauséjour Duffau-Lagarrosse, I er Grand Cru Classé St-Emilion £275.00
From a very great vintage. On the red fruit side with herbs, liquorice, truffle and leafy aromatics, the wine is fully developed. Medium bodied, soft, fresh and with a dusty, red fruit and olive palate presence, this is easy to drink today.
- 2001 Chambolle Musigny Vieilles Vignes, Collection Bellenum, Maison 6 Roche de Bellene £275.00
Possessing a quite extraordinarily brilliant nose that still displays a considerable amount of primary fruit - raspberry and wild strawberries - but has the slightly gamey, near-impossible-to-describe complexity only found in Burgundy. The palate is incredibly elegant, with spectacularly pure fruit, sleek tannins, a gorgeous mouth feel and perfect balance. It manages to show great concentration, but with no excess weight; so hard to achieve, but magnificent when found in a wine. This is wonderful wine that is simply incredible value for money.
- 1998 Chateau Pavie-Macquin, Grand Cru Classé St-Emilion £300.00
Deeply coloured, this wine offers a treat for the senses aromatically and on the palate. The long, intense, mineral and ripe fruit finish is a pleasure to experience.

1999 Pommard I er Cru Clos des Epeneaux, Comte Armand

£350.00

The most sought-after wine in Pommard. The 1999 has an intense, brooding colour. A strong and rugged wine as always, but one whose tannins are all but concealed by velvet fruit. Sublime.

2008 Le Petit Mouton, Pauillac

£400.00

The second wine of the great Mouton Rothschild estate. A solid companion to its big brother, if this was 1855, the wine would have been classified. Forward, full and elegant, with richly layered red fruits, spice and earth, the wine is round, juicy sweet and fresh. You can enjoy this now while waiting for the Mouton Rothschild to develop.

1999 Chambolle-Musigny I er Cru Les Charmes, Domaine Ponsot

£700.00

Truly outstanding wine - lush on the palate, dense black fruits, almost plummy, exceptional length, silky, rich and very intense, one of the finest Chambolle Charmes ever made. Extraordinary balance of fruit and tannin. Absolutely ready now but certainly will last for years yet. Grand Vin!
